Get Help with:

Adolescent Development

- Dog-dog play skills
- Comfort with handling
- Impulse control
- Body awareness

Life Skills/Manners

- Settling skills
- Leash walking
- Basic manners
- Coming when called

Behavior Issues

- Low frustration tolerance
- Jumping on people
- Confidence around strangers
- Demand behavior

Mini Adolescent Camps allow us to continue the foundational work we started in Puppy Camp, especially on life skills and manners. Adolescence can be a very hard time for families because young dogs will test their boundaries and try new behaviors.

We are here to help you maintain boundaries while meeting your dog's needs for exercise, socialization, and stimulation.
